II. Alleged Violations

On April 12th, 2016, Tim Eyman, who serves as the designated media contact for “Bring Back Our $30 Car Tabs – VMWC – 2016” (ostensibly a ballot measure committee formed to promote I-1421, a 2016 initiative to the people) announced the launch of an online ad campaign targeted at fifty-four incumbent Democratic state legislators from twenty-one different legislative districts.

The campaign consists principally of a series of video advertisements which identify lawmakers from a given district by name and photograph, and subsequently urge viewers to “Vote Them Out”, after having assailed them for refusing to implement Respondents' previous initiative from 2015 (Initiative 1366, struck down in January 2016 as unconstitutional in King County Superior Court). The entire collection of ads was published to a website created for and dedicated to the ad campaign by a vendor, Campaign Grid.

The apparent costs of this ad campaign were disclosed in a C4 filing on April 11th, 2016 by “Bring Back Our $30 Car Tabs – VMWC – 2016”, which states that Campaign Grid of Fort Washington, Pennsylvania, was paid $42,000 on March 28th, 2016, for “Advertising Promotion for Initiative 1366”. On the same day, Anne Norwood of Gresham, Oregon was paid $780.00 for “banner advertising”, while Mark Dodd of Vancouver, Washington was paid $2,438 for “campaign computer advertising”.

RCW 42.17A.255 stipulates that a person or entity that makes an independent expenditure of more than one hundred dollars has five days to file an initial report with the Public Disclosure Commission documenting “all independent expenditures made during the campaign prior to and including such date”.

Washingtonians for Ethical Government

2137 E John | Seattle, WA 98112

An independent expenditure is defined as “any expenditure that is made in support of or in opposition to any candidate or ballot proposition and is not otherwise required to be reported pursuant to RCW 42.17A.220, 42.17A.235, and 42.17A.240.” Guidelines published by the Public Disclosure Commission define an independent expenditure as having five elements:

1. the ad supports or opposes a candidate for state, local, or judicial office;
2. the ad is paid for by someone other than a candidate, a candidate's committee or agent;
3. the sponsor does the advertising completely independently of any candidate support in the ad (or the opponent of the candidate opposed), or a candidate's committee or agent;
4. the sponsor did not received the candidate's encouragement or approval to produce the ad; and
5. the ad costs at least $1,000, or the cost of the latest ad when combined with the cost of earlier ads supporting or opposing the candidate, totals $1,000 or more.

The ads created by Campaign Grid for “Bring Back Our $30 Car Tabs – VMWC – 2016” meet the definition of an independent expenditure. The ads oppose candidates for state House and Senate, were financed by a committee unaffiliated with a candidate, were produced without the approval or encouragement of a candidate, and collectively cost more than forty times more than the threshold of $1,000.

Because the ads meet the definition of independent expenditures, they should contain the required statement “No candidate authorized this ad. It is paid for by (name, address, city, state)”. The PDC's guidelines unequivocally state that this statement “must be part of the ad”. For broadcast ads, the PDC's guidance states that the required disclosures “must be clearly spoken”. However, the ads in question do not contain this statement as the law requires. Nor were the ads properly reported as an independent expenditure as required by law. The PDC instructs makers of independent expenditures to “electronically file or otherwise deliver C-6 to the PDC within 5 days of spending $100 or more”, unless they are political committees, in which case they are instructed to report their independent expenditures “only on the C-4 report”.

The instructions provided by the PDC that accompany the C-4 form state: “The question posted near the top of the first page of this form regarding independent expenditures applies to ALL POLITICAL COMMITTEES required to file C-4 reports, except ballot issue committees that neither contribute to candidates nor make independent expenditures regarding them and candidate committees (because they are prohibited from making expenditures that are not directly related to their own campaigns).”

“Bring Back Our $30 Car Tabs – VMWC – 2016” is registered as a ballot issue committee, but its treasurer should nevertheless have answered “Yes” to the question “During this report period, did the committee make an independent expenditure (i.e., an expense not considered a contribution) supporting or opposing a state or local candidate?” because it did make independent expenditures opposing numerous candidates seeking reelection to the Washington State Legislature. The committee's treasurer then should have documented the independent expenditures as required using Schedule A or Part 3 of Schedule B to show:

- the date of the expense;
- the name and address of the vendor or recipient of the funds;
- if using Schedule A, an “I” in the Code column;
- the name and office sought of the candidate supported or opposed;
- an indication of support or opposition; and
- a brief description of the expense (e.g brochure mailed to absentee voters).

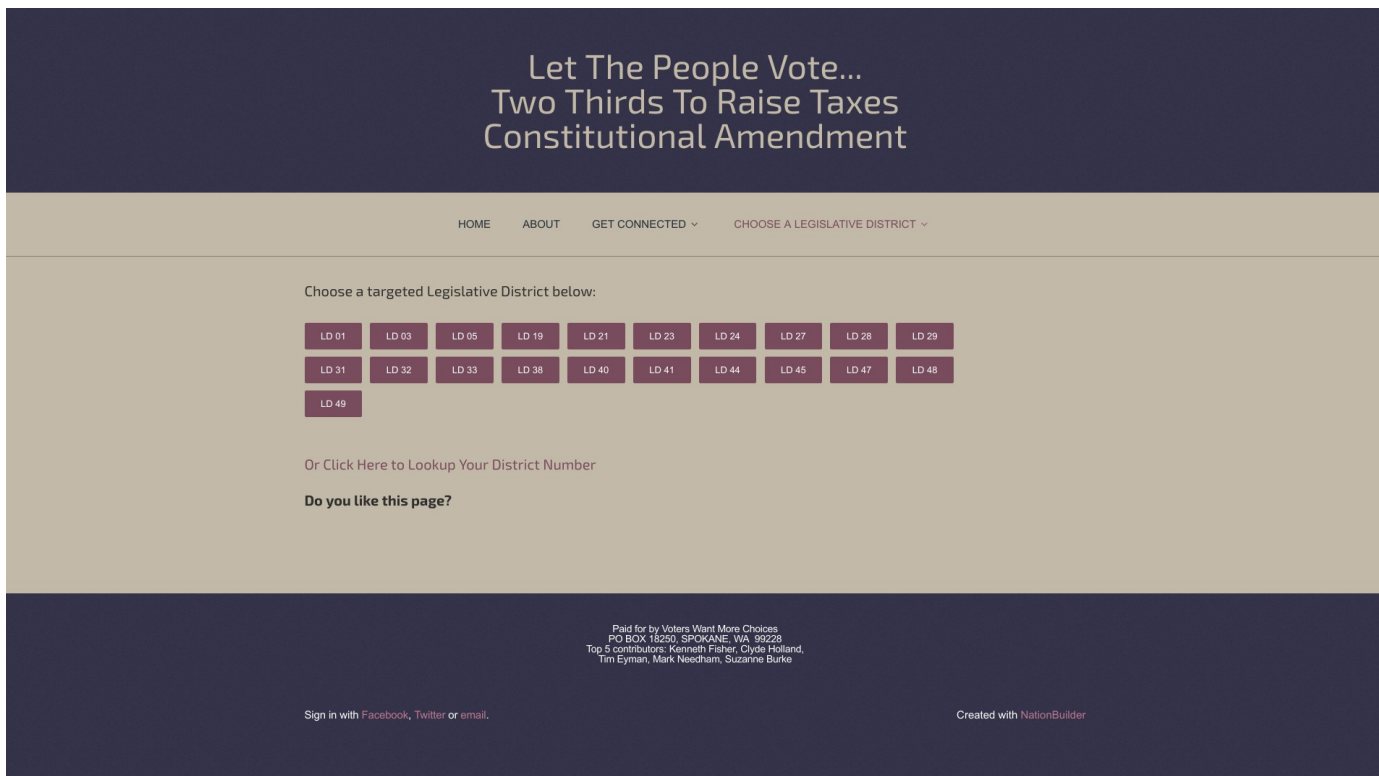

Figure 1: The Public Disclosure Commission website as seen on May 20th, 2016. No independent expenditures are listed for or against Lillian Ortiz-Self, one of the targets of the ads.

None of this information was provided as part of the C4 filed on April 11th, 2016, nor has it been provided since. The committee's failure to report this independent expenditure is an act of concealment. It constitutes an egregious violation of Washington's public disclosure law. Journalists, voters, candidates and observers rely on the Public Disclosure Commission's website to track independent expenditures, but because these ads have not been reported as required, only those who actually see the website, videos, or emails generated by respondents will be aware of their existence.

Stills from the videos

Figure 7: The final scene from the ads states who is responsible for the ad, including the top five contributors, but fails to include the required disclosure “No candidate authorized this ad...”
